MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

Mr. Warner called on the Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs, Dr. Alejandro Montiel, on June 22, 1955, to inform him that the new Nicaraguan proposal for Paragraph 4 of Article XXI of the proposed Treaty of Friendship, Commerce and Navigation, which was submitted by the Nicaraguan Embassy at Washington, is accepted by the Department of State. The wording of Paragraph 4, Article XXI, is now the following:

> 4. The provisions of the present Treaty regarding most-favored-nation treatment, other than those relating to importation and exportation, shall not be applied to advantages which the Republic of Nicaragua accords to the other countries of Central America within a definite program of regional economic integration. As concerns advantages which Nicaragua may accord to the Central American countries with respect to importation and exportation, the provisions of Article XIV of the present Treaty shall prevail.

Mr. Warner stated that copies of this memorandum are being sent direct to Dr. Baca-Múñoz and expressed the hope that since a solution has now been found to this point in dispute, the Treaty could be finalized in the near future.
